A lullaby that brought me wing.”

The poems also explore the loss of innocence and the shattered dreams of childhood. In "The Wall," a boy witnesses the construction of a towering barrier that divides his community, symbolizing the shattered hopes and broken promises of a divided nation:

It separates us, tears us apart,
A concrete reminder of our broken heart.”

Though my path is uncertain, my story yet untold.
I carry my dreams in my heart so true,
For I know that anything is possible for me and you.”
