The Historical Context

The compilation of the Siree Guru Granth Sahib is a testament to the collaborative efforts of Sikh Gurus, who played a pivotal role in shaping the Sikh faith. The foundation of the scripture was laid by Guru Nanak, the founder of Sikhism, who composed numerous hymns and ethical teachings that formed the cornerstone of Sikh philosophy.

Successive Sikh Gurus, including Guru Angad, Guru Amar Das, Guru Ram Das, and Guru Arjan, continued to contribute to the growing body of Sikh scriptures. Guru Arjan, the fifth Sikh Guru, undertook the monumental task of compiling the Adi Granth, the first version of the Sikh holy book. This compilation included the writings of the previous Gurus, as well as the works of several renowned saints and poets.

The Compilation of the Siree Guru Granth Sahib

The final and complete version of the Siree Guru Granth Sahib was compiled by Guru Gobind Singh, the tenth and last Sikh Guru. In 1708, Guru Gobind Singh added his own compositions to the Adi Granth and declared it to be the eternal Guru of the Sikhs, bestowing upon it the title of Siree Guru Granth Sahib.

Since its compilation, the Siree Guru Granth Sahib has remained unchanged, preserving the timeless wisdom and teachings of the Sikh Gurus. It is considered the living embodiment of the ten Sikh Gurus and is revered as the ultimate spiritual authority within Sikhism.

The Structure and Content of the Siree Guru Granth Sahib

The Siree Guru Granth Sahib is a voluminous text, comprising over 1430 pages and containing a diverse collection of hymns, poems, and prose. It is divided into 31 ragas, or musical modes, each of which is further subdivided into sub-sections.

The hymns and compositions within the Siree Guru Granth Sahib cover a wide range of topics, including the nature of God, the Sikh concept of devotion, ethical conduct, social justice, and the path to spiritual enlightenment.

One of the unique features of the Siree Guru Granth Sahib is its inclusive nature. It includes not only the writings of the Sikh Gurus but also the works of Hindu and Muslim saints and poets. This reflects the Sikh belief in the unity of all religions and the universal nature of spiritual truth.
