

Fire in the Trees: The Aquitaine Reluctant Readers

Synopsis

Fire in the Trees is a breathtaking novel that tells the story of Jean-Luc, a young boy who has always struggled with reading. Books have always seemed like a chore to him, something he was forced to do at school but never something he enjoyed. But everything changes when he meets the Aquitaine Reluctant Readers, a group of fellow students who also struggle with reading.

Together, the Aquitaine Reluctant Readers embark on a literary adventure that will change their lives forever. Led by their passionate teacher, Madame Dubois, they discover the magic of storytelling and the power of imagination. They learn to appreciate the beauty of language and the importance of reading for pleasure.
