The Tetractys Model is an ancient Pythagorean symbol that represents the interconnectedness of all things. It consists of ten dots arranged in four rows, with the first row containing one dot, the second containing two dots, and so on. Each row represents a different level of reality, from the physical to the spiritual.

The Tetractys Model is used in the Matrix Method to create a sacred geometry that amplifies your manifestation intentions. By placing your desired outcome in the center of the Tetractys, you surround it with the energetic support of the entire universe. This creates a powerful resonance that attracts the necessary elements to bring your vision to life.
